

Joy to the world,
the Lord is come!

HOLY TRINITY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

DECEMBER 24, 2024

4:00 P.M.

In winter's deepest night, we welcome the light of the Christ child. Isaiah declares that the light of the long-promised king will illumine the world and bring endless peace and justice. The angels declare that Jesus' birth is good and joyful news for everyone, including lowly shepherds. Filled with the light that shines in our lives, we go forth to share the light of Christ with the whole world.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. Mary V. Farnham

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us go, in heart and mind, to see what has come to pass.

We travel with the shepherds:

to find the Savior!

We travel with the wise ones:

to find God's promise, born for us!

We travel with the poor and humble:

to find our King, born in a lowly manger.

Come, let us worship; come, let us adore him:

Christ the Lord!

*GATHERING HYMN

*GREETING

Today Christ is born: alleluia, alleluia!

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God, You made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that here on earth we may walk in the light of Jesus' presence and in the last day wake to the brightness of his glory; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 9:2, 6-7

This poem promises deliverance from Assyrian oppression, a hope based on the birth of a royal child with a name full of promise. While Judah's king will practice justice and righteousness, the real basis for faith lies in God's passion for the people:

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this!

A reading from Isaiah, chapter 9.

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;

those who lived in a land of deep darkness—

on them light has shined.

⁶For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace.

⁷His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Word of God, Word of life.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Luke 2:1–20

God's greatest gift comes as a baby in a manger. Angels announce the "good news of great joy" and proclaim God's blessing of peace.

The holy Gospel according to St. Luke, chapter 2.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered.

Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us."

So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

*PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Filled with good news of great joy, let us offer our prayers for the church, the earth, and all people.

A brief silence.

Angels sing with praise, and shepherds run with haste.

As we glorify and praise you in this place, send us into the world, proclaiming the salvation you have revealed this night.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

The seas roar, and the trees of the forest sing for joy.

As creation resounds with praise, inspire us with awe, reverence, and a renewed care for all that fills the fields, skies, and seas.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

The nations declare your glory.

Uphold the leaders of the earth with your justice and righteousness.

Break the rod of the oppressor in every land, and bring peace where there is conflict. God of grace, receive our prayer.

The holy family finds shelter around the animals' manger.

Draw near to persons experiencing homelessness, those who are alone this holiday season, and all for whom this world makes no room.

Wrap all your children in bands of love and mercy.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

A child is born for us and light shines on the weary.

Watch over those who give birth this night and attend to those who are dying. Be present in our joys and in our sorrows. We give thanks for the lives of all the faithful who have died and who now enjoy the full presence of God, including those for whom Christmas gifts have been given.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

The heavenly host praises you.

With thanksgiving for Mary, Joseph, and all your saints, sustain us in the blessed hope revealed this night. Fashion us by their example into a people zealous for good deeds, sharing your love and mercy with all.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

[Presiding Minister]

We commend these prayers to you, O God, trusting your grace made known to all, through the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Prince of Peace be with you always.

And also with you.

MEAL

God feeds us with the presence of Jesus Christ.

OFFERING

(Scan To Give)

Our offering is an expression of thanks for God's love of us.

We give with grateful hearts, aware that many gifts are given to us in order to pass through us to others! As faithful stewards of the gifts God has given us, our generosity as a faith family makes a difference- beneath our steeple, in our community, in our Synod, within the ELCA, and around this world God loves so very much.

OFFERTORY HYMN

What Child Is This

1 What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mar-y's lap is sleep-ing?
2 Why lies he in such mean es - tate where ox and ass are feed - ing?
3 So bring him in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, peas-ant, king, to own him.

Whom an - gels greet with an-thems sweet while shep-herds watch are keep - ing?
Good Chris-tian, fear; for sin-ners here the si - lent Word is plead-ing.
The King of kings sal - va - tion brings; let lov - ing hearts en-throne him.

This, this is Christ the king, whom shep-herds guard and an-gels sing;
Nails, spear shall pierce him through, the cross be borne for me, for you;
Raise, raise the song on high, the vir - gin sings her lul - la - by;

haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mar - y!

*OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray.

God of heaven and earth, from the beginning, you have called forth life, in which you take delight. The trees, the fields, and the seas sing for joy.

Bless now these gifts, received from your bounty, that we may join the chorus of creation to tell of your salvation from day to day.

Amen.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

ELW

The musical notation consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words in bold. The first staff has two measures: "The Lord be with you." and "And al - so with you." The second staff has two measures: "Lift up your hearts." and "We lift them to the Lord." The third staff has one measure: "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." The fourth staff has one measure: "It is right to give our thanks and praise." The notes are primarily quarter and eighth notes, with some slurs and ties.

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

*PREFACE

We thank you, God. You made sun, moon and stars; earth, wind and waters; and every living thing. You made us and teach us to walk in your ways. But we didn't want to follow and wandered far away. And yet, as mothers and fathers care for their children, you did not forget us. Today is the birthday of the Lord Jesus. You sent him to call us back to you and your love. We sing with the angels the song that goes on forever:

*SANCTUS

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

With this bread and cup we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth. We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection. We look with hope for his coming.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit. Come among us.

Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us.

Awaken your people. Fill us with your light.

Bring the gift of peace on earth.

Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel, Word of God incarnate, Power of the Most High, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power,

and the glory,

forever and ever.

Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

A child has been born for us, a Son given to us.

Come, receive the gift of Jesus.

All baptized Christians who believe the Lord is truly present in this sacrament are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Communicants file forward from the center aisle. They receive the consecrated host, then choose either a prefilled cup of consecrated red wine or consecrated white grape juice from the tray held by Communion assistant. Communicants place used glass in separate tray and then return to their seats by the side aisles. Gluten-free hosts are available upon request.

POSTLUDE

Deacon Ned Perwo

Festivity on “Here We Come A-Caroling”

Traditional English Carol

Arranged by Douglas E. Wagner

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Stephen, Deacon and Martyr | Thursday, December 26, 2024

Stephen was a deacon and the first martyr of the church. He was one of those seven upon whom the apostles laid hands after they had been chosen to serve widows and others in need. Later, Stephen's preaching angered the temple authorities, and they ordered him to be put to death by stoning.

John, Apostle and Evangelist | Friday, December 27, 2024

The son of Zebedee and brother of James, John was one of the twelve disciples and witness to the transfiguration. Tradition has named him also the writer of the Gospel of John, the three New Testament letters bearing his name, as well as Revelation.

The Holy Innocents, Martyrs | Saturday, December 28, 2024

This day commemorates the young children killed by Herod in Bethlehem in his jealous attempt to murder the baby Jesus, a sobering reminder of the evil that led Christ to be born for our salvation.

Name of Jesus | Wednesday, January 1, 2025

By Jewish law, every baby boy was circumcised and named on the eighth day of life, so on the eighth day of Christmas the church celebrates this event in Jesus' life. The keeping of the covenant as well as Jesus' name are signs of God's salvation given to us through him.

Johann Konrad Wilhelm Loehe, renewer of the church, died 1872

Thursday, January 2, 2025

Loehe was a pastor in nineteenth-century Germany. Loehe's chief concern was that a congregation find its life in the holy communion, and from that source evangelism and social ministries would flow. He sent pastors to North America, Australia, New Guinea, Brazil, and Ukraine.

THE NURSERY is located under the narthex (rear of the sanctuary) and accessed via the descending staircase. Nursery is available to all families who wish to use it; families are asked to supervise their own children--there is no designated nursery attendant. Video from the sanctuary can be viewed on the nursery TV. Turn it on using the TV remote, wait for it to boot up and select "HDMI 1" for the video feed. Audio from the sanctuary can be heard through the nursery speakers. Please do not adjust TV volume. Please note: children are always welcomed in worship!

Eternal Light, Bread & Wine and Bulletins are given to the glory of God by John Cooney in loving memory of his sister, Jean, and in honor of her birthday.

LET US KNOW YOU WERE HERE: THE FRIENDSHIP REGISTER

Signing the friendship register tells us you were present and gives you a chance to provide or update contact info. Please share your e-mail address to receive on-line updates about HT happenings. Our Holy Trinity constitution requires that active confirmed members receive Holy Communion and make a "contribution of record" at least once every other year. Using an offering envelope from the pew ensures that your gift is properly credited.

Visitors, please sign the friendship register, phone or e-mail us!

HEALING SERVICE AND LUNCHEON: Please join us on Wed., Jan., 8 at 11 a.m. Our healing service includes Scripture, song, prayer, lighting of candles, laying on of hands, anointing with oil, and Holy Communion. An assisting minister and ushers are needed. Social Ministry is hosting a luncheon in Fellowship Hall following worship. Please sign up to serve in worship and for the luncheon on-line or through the HT office: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508054BADAC2CA4FA7-45419977-post>

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING: Join us on Sunday, January 26 immediately following 8:45 a.m. worship (approximately 9:45 a.m.). Please note: there will be only one worship service on Jan. 26; we will worship at 5 p.m. on Sat., Jan. 25, as usual. There will be no Sunday School on Jan. 26; however, there will be an activity for children whose parents attend the meeting. If weather prevents the meeting from taking place on Jan. 26, it will be rescheduled for Sunday, February 2, following 8:45 a.m. worship. Should this occur, we'll send an eblast and leave word on the HT website homepage.

A quorum (15%) of voting members is required to conduct the meeting; for us this is 75 persons. The meeting agenda will include voting on the budget, a revised Constitution/Bylaws, and becoming a Reconciling in Christ partner congregation. The meeting will also include the election of Council, Nominating Committee, and Endowment Committee members.

Questions? There will be an "Annual Meeting Q&A" after 5 p.m. worship on Sat., Jan. 18, and also during coffee hour on Sun., Jan. 19.

GENEALOGY GROUP MEETS THE 2ND AND 4TH SUNDAYS each month at 11:30 a.m. in the Council Room. We welcome all who are interested in exploring their family tree, beginners to advanced. We would love to have you join us!

FATIH AND BLUE ANTI-FRAUD PRESENTATION: Officer Kevin Istvanditsch from Manasquan Police will be with us on Sat., Jan. 11, after 5 p.m. worship for a fraud prevention presentation: "Common Scams: how to identify them and how to protect yourself." The materials include specific, simple, effective ways to spot a scam and avoid being victimized.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP: Wed., Jan. 15, 12:30 p.m. in the Council Room. All are welcomed to come, share experiences, and have hopeful conversations. Susan Nolan, LCSW grief counselor, leads the group. Please contact Susan Bramley, founder of the group, at 848-702-5602 for further information.

“LESSONS FROM DIETRICH BONHOEFFER IN A HOUSE DIVIDED AND A WORLD ON FIRE”:

Join Pastor Mary and Susan Ardito for 6 sessions over 6 weeks to explore the life and theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, with special emphasis on lessons for living at the intersection of faith and civic life today. Bonhoeffer was a Lutheran pastor and theologian living in Nazi Germany; he eventually joined the Resistance and was arrested and killed before the end of WWII. This curriculum was compiled by Dr. Lori Brandt Hale, an internationally renowned Bonhoeffer scholar and president of the International Bonhoeffer Society – English Language Section. Goal: to explore the life of one of the most famous Lutherans of the 20th century, in order to inspire deeper conversation and discernment about how we live as disciples. Thursdays., Jan. 16, 23, 30, Feb. 6, 13, 20, 10-11:30 a.m. Please RSVP by Jan. 12 on-line or through the HT office:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508054BADAC2CA4FA7-54096044-lessons>
Each participant will receive a workbook.

HOLY TRINITY/ST. DENIS "AMEN EFFECT" BOOK STUDY:

Pastor Mary and Fr. Bill Lago will lead discussion of the amen effect: Ancient Wisdom to Mend our Broken Hearts and World, by Rabbi Sharon Brous. Brous writes about the healing power of "showing up" for individuals and the community in times of pain and sorrow, joy and celebration. She offers compelling examples and invites us to consider how to mend broken hearts and rebuild our society in times of loneliness and isolation. Please join the conversation! (Holy Trinity had a 2 week series on the amen effect this past May; we discovered that was nowhere near enough time to mine the richness of this book. We didn't want to leave any of the beauty unexplored, so we're revisiting the discussion. Even if you participated before, please come again!) Weds., Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, 19, 11 a.m.-noon at Holy Trinity and 7-8 p.m. in St. Denis Parish Center. Please RSVP:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508054BADAC2CA4FA7-53912715-holy> or go to the HT website under Sign Ups or call the church office for assistance.

ONE WARM COAT: We will continue to collect coats into January, so those who receive new coats through December can donate the ones they no longer use. Social Ministry makes sure they go to organizations that supply warm coats to those in need.

INTERESTED IN HELPING TO COUNT THE WEEKLY OFFERING?

The Finance Team is scheduling counters of the weekly offering in 2024 and we need additional members who are willing to serve. The count takes place each Sunday following 8:45 a.m. worship and requires approximately six Sundays a year of volunteering. (We are flexible.) You will be teamed up with another member of HT, so it is a great way to get to know other members. If you are interested in hearing more about this volunteer opportunity please contact Ralph Jensen at Ralphejensen@aol.com.

MANASQUAN MINISTERIUM FOOD PANTRY: 'tis the season for giving, and as the year comes to a close, the Pantry Volunteers would like to thank you for all the support you have given throughout 2024! Without you, we would not be able to successfully continue this ministry, about which we feel so passionately. We wish you and your loved ones a joyous, faith-filled holiday season.

Our shelves for cannellini and kidney beans, noodles and oil are looking sparse, so any of these donations to end the year would be appreciated. Monetary donations and gift cards for Aldi or ShopRite are also of great use for pantry volunteers to purchase chicken, fresh produce and other needed items.

Do you or someone you know need confidential assistance from our community food pantry? Please call (732) 223-0898 to reach the ecumenical food pantry located on the lower level of Manasquan Presbyterian Church.
